INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

1. The monthly emoluments on initial appointment will be on the minimum of the scale of pay plus Dearness Allowance as admissible from time to time. In addition, the employee will get House Rent Allowance and City Compensatory Allowance depending on the place of posting. The candidates selected will be absorbed after successful completion of the training, wherever prescribed. They will be considered in due course for promotion to higher grades including supervisory levels, according to rules/orders in force from time to time.

2. Mode of selection : The selection will be made on the basis of Written Examinations and Interviews. Psychology tests, wherever necessary, will also be conducted. Merely satisfying the educational qualifications and the age prescribed itself will not constitute a right to be called for the written examination unless the candidates fulfil other conditions/requirements given in the Employment Notice.

Important - The Railway Recruitment Board, at its discretion may hold additional written test(s) and/or interview(s) if considered necessary for all or for a limited number of candidates as may be deemed fit by the Railway Recruitment Board.

2.1. The syllabus for the written examination will be generally in conformity with the educational standards and/or technical qualifications prescribed for the various posts. The written examination for all categories will generally consist of objective type questions. However, in regard to categories like Engineering, para Medical and Scientific categories, the candidates should be prepared to answer descriptive type questions also.

2.2. The objective type of written examination question paper will consist of Four Parts, Viz., English, Arithmetic, General Knowledge and General Intelligence, each with 40 questions carrying one mark each. For each question, the candidates are required to select the correct answer from among the various alternatives and indicate it in the answer sheet in the column provided in it. The maximum marks for the written examination will generally be 160. As regards General Knowledge portion, the candidates are expected to possess a broad knowledge of current events and matters of general interest.

2.3. Candidates may answer the descriptive questions either in English or in Hindi, except the General English paper wherever prescribed. They should indicate their option for the medium in Column No.17 of the application form (Col. No.22 for Ex-Servicemen).

2.4. It is proposed to conduct the written examinations at Madras, Tiruchirappalli and Madurai. The examination centres given above are provisional and the centres will be decided depending upon the number of candidates at each centre. The candidates may indicate their preference to any one of the above centres which is nearest to their place of residence, in the Application Form. As far as possible, the candidates will be allotted the centre of their choice. Under No Circumstances, the request for change of Examination Centre will be entertained.

2.5. Each examination centre is given a code number as indicated below. Candidates are required to indicate the Code Number only in the relevant Column in the Application Form

Examination Centre	Code Number
Madras	1
Tiruchirappalli	2
Madurai	3

2.6. Candidates who qualify in the written examination would be called for interview. The written examination will be dispensed with, where the number of candidates is less. Only the selected candidates will be intimated about this Recruitment Board. The maximum marks for interview would normally be 25 percent of the maximum marks for the written examination. Final selection will be based on the total marks obtained in the written examination and interview.

Note : 1. Candidates applying for the post of Stenographers have to qualify in the Stenography Test as per the standard prescribed.

2. Candidates applying for the post of Typist will have to qualify in the Speed Test prescribed.

2.7. Candidates who are found eligible for written examination will be given the option to answer the questions either in English or in Hindi. However this is subject to their suitability which may be checked later.

2.8. Free second Class Railway Passes as and where admissible will be issued to the candidates who belong to Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribe Communities when they are called for written examination or for interview. All other candidates called for, are to appear at their own cost.

3. Age : The lower and upper age limits are indicated against each category. The age will be reckoned as on 01st June 1991 (01.06.1991). The upper age limit is relaxable as under subject to the production of the requisite certificate.

Candidates claiming age exemption are required to mention the Appropriate Code number as detailed below in item 12 of the Application Form.
